---	--	----------------------------------	-----	----------------------	----	-----

Terri Linman

Second graders often think they are ready for a pet of their own. Teachers often know otherwise. We will take a look at the needs of various small pets. This webquest will help guide a group of children in the selection of a pet suitable for a classroom. We will check the web for dietary, health, sanitation and habitat needs of various pets. Critical to the selection process will be the ability to stay unattended for the weekend.
